

Outcomes
Prerequisite Skills	Riding skills Weather and snowpack data collection Hazard analysis Avalanche rescue Navigation
Movement Skills	Back-country riding technique Fitness
Rescue Skills	Lost rider search Avalanche rescue Cliff rescue (Ropework and Improvised harness) Dead sled evacuation Toboggan rescue
Guides meeting	Trip planning Info exchange Record Keeping
Hazard Management	Avalanche Riding hazards Fall hazard (creeks, cliffs, crevasses) Snow shelters Rock fall Cornice management
Weather	Standard Wx obs Weather product interpretation Application of field obs to the guiding day
Navigation	Compass Map reading GPS Whiteout plan
Classroom Presentations	Professionalism Waivers Client profile Equipment standards Client safety briefings Guide's equipment Avalanche equipment Range/function check Navigation skills Expedition planning Working with helicopters
Downhill Guiding Terrain Travel Uphill and downhill	Introducing backcountry riding Group control and regrouping Fall line track setting Tree riding Setting boundaries Spacing out Team guiding Guiding difficult terrain and conditions Pacing
Snowpack	Test profile Gathering snowpack info while guiding Sled cutting
Instructional Skills	Riding technique Avalanche Rescue skills for clients